

MMS BEHAVIOR RETEACH & RESET

A mistake is a chance to understand what happened, practice a better choice, and return ready for success.

WHAT HAPPENED?

Read the behavior note in the box above this sentence.

- In your own words, summarize what the write-up says happened. Do not copy it word-for-word.
 - Your job here is not to explain whether you agree or disagree with the write-up.

The behavior note says that I...

OWN YOUR CHOICE.

What choice did YOU make that contributed to the situation?

- Focus only on the part you could control: your own words, actions, or responses.

The choice that I made was...

THINK ABOUT THIS IMPACT.

Who or what was MOST affected by your choice? Mark ONE:

ME

ANOTHER STUDENT

STAFF

THE CLASS / LEARNING

SCHOOL PROPERTY

Explain how your choice affected the person or area you marked:

THE DO-OVER.

Rewind the situation. What should you have DONE or SAID instead?

- Be specific. Show a response that would meet school and classroom expectations.

To meet the school's expectations, I should have... _____

READY TO RESET?

Initial Each Statement:

- _____ I understand why I was assigned this Reteach.
- _____ I can identify the part of the situation that I could control.
- _____ I can identify a better choice if a similar situation happens again.
- _____ I understand that repeating the behavior may result in additional consequences.

OK, bring the paper to the teacher, please.

MMS STAFF REVIEW:

After reviewing the student's reflection, check the appropriate box.

- ☐ RESET - Student demonstrated understanding and is ready to return successfully.
- ☐ REFER - Student refused to participate appropriately and/or this is repeated behavior.
- ☐ RETEACH - Student needs additional conversation/practice.

FINISHING UP.
